

U3a Alton Policy Document Protocol New Groups and Courses

The lifeblood of u3a Alton is the variety and attraction of our activities. We are keen to expand and promote the range of activities we have on offer and would like to help with the setting up of new groups.

If you have an idea for a new course or activity then please contact our Course Director with the following information:

- Name of the group leader.
- Title and nature of the activity.
- Number of people involved, maximum and minimum..
- Proposed venue location.
- Preferred times, days and frequency of events.

Your committee can promote new ideas for members to consider by email circulation and through our website www.altonu3a.co.uk We also have our notice board at Alton Community Centre. In some cases it may be possible to get help with the purchase of equipment.

The national u3a with more than 430,000 members has lots of helpful information on their website www.u3a.org.uk search support advice.
